MONDAY, APRIL 15

Behavioral and Mental Health Professions Career Panel
10–11:30 a.m. | HUB 268
Behavioral and mental health professionals discuss what led them to their professions, as well as the ins and outs of a typical workday.

MCAT Strategy Session featuring Princeton Review
3–4 p.m. | Career Center
Get ready for the MCAT with Princeton Review, a leader in test preparation publications.

Graduate/Doctoral Health Professions Student Panel
5:10–6 p.m. | HUB 268
Students in a variety of health professional programs discuss how they got into their programs and their experiences along the way.

TUESDAY, APRIL 16

Atlantis Pre-Med Abroad Fellowship
12–1 p.m. | HUB 269
Come learn more about this unique program that offers clinical shadowing fellowships around the globe.

Locate Public Health Needs Using Technology
3:30–5 p.m. | Rivera Room 138
In this interactive workshop, learn how software called GIS can help you understand how location affects health and illness.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17

US Army Suture Clinic
1–3 p.m. | HUB 268
An Army medical officer will explain military medicine and suturing styles.

Allied Health Professionals in the Health Care Industry panel
3:30–5 p.m. | HUB 268
Health professionals discuss everyday work life and how they arrived at their professions.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18

Optometry and Podiatry Activities featuring Western University of Health Sciences
3:30–5 p.m. | HUB 265
Experience engaging activities with current professional students to learn more about careers in the fields of optometry and podiatry.

REGISTER AT: GO.UCR.EDU/HEALTHPROFESSIONSWEEK